

Teen Scavenger Hunt

@ the Library!

Can you solve these 8 clues? When you think you have solved the clue, go to that area of the library and find the YCL Paintbrush and a secret answer. Write the answer you find on this sheet. Find all the answers and bring your answer sheet to the Young Adult Staff to see if you are correct. Get a piece of candy for participating! If you are a teen, enter your clue sheet for a chance to win a gift card!

Clue 1 - "I want to read about the life of a beloved Golden Girl, with a color in her name. Find the book written by her and find your answer!"

1

Clue 2 - "Per Guinness Records, this character who debuted in 1887 is the most portrayed human literary character in film and television". Find their films to find your answer.

2

Clue 3 - This York County city used to have its own newspaper. But how do I find out if my picture was in the paper in 1980?

3

Clue 4 - Outside there are painted castles in the sky, way up high. But what four letters are on them?
(This is the only clue where you can answer the question, there is no paintbrush with a separate answer).

4

(over)

Teen Scavenger Hunt

@ the Library!

Clue 5 - This author has a last name right out of a book, and created a character nicknamed "The Girl Who Rode the Cyclone".

5 _____

Clue 6 - "I like big books and I cannot lie - especially ones with big typeface. My favorites are ones by this prolific Alex Cross author".

6 _____

Name: _____

Age: _____

Contact Info: _____

Clue 7 - Who knew book characters hung their laundry up at the library? Leave it to the Captain!

7 _____

Clue 8 - This master class book about drawing is written by someone who died in 2018. Even though he was not an actor, he did appear BRIEFLY in 40 action films that had a combined $30 billion worldwide gross.

8 _____

Teens - enter your clue sheet for a chance to win a gift card!

